PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

CCARC was closed for 2 1/2 months to the shutdown for COVID. This has put us behind in our researching for people and keeping the donations of materials catalogued.

Please bear with us on publishing our newsletter. If anyone is interested in helping with the newsletter, please help. We need to publish 4 times a year. The spring issue did not happen.

I am constantly busy with wonderful donations of all kinds. The Court of Common Pleas found miscellaneous records that were missing in the Civil Files and Court of Appeals. This filled a few gaps. Another item was 52 cash books from Court of Common Pleas, dating 1949 to 1990's. Another donation was Gruber Family Bible, dated 1840. This donation also included family obits and family histories.

The Votaw Homestead, Inc was given to us. This collection has deeds, maps, cash book for the land at Guilford Lake. What a wonderful history of the land in that area.

The Sheerer family donated items of the Jackson Mackall family. Do you have a connection to this family? We have family pictures, possibly reunion pictures, obituaries, deeds, application for land in Roll Day County, Oklahoma for serving in the Civil War, his Civil War Additional Pension Record, 1890 Teaching Certificate and so much more.

This newsletter will give examples of what you can find at CCARC.

Please take note! The phone number for CCARC is 724-825-5011. Our hours are Tues thru Fri 9:30 to 3:00. CCARC can reveal many stories of our ancestors. Come and reveal your story!

What did you do while in quarantine? Donna Carroll found a box of The East Liverpool Messengers in her house that her mother had saved. The years include 1924 to 1932. So many interesting pictures with information. If you haven't visited Gaston Mills recently, it's time for a day trip.

ABOUT THE PICTURES

MESSENGER readers are favoring their little magazine with many pictures this summer. However, many write on the back of the pictures themselves, which sometimes spoils them for reproduction. Always write on a separate sheet of paper and be sure to give all facts concerning the picture.

We are going to ask an unusual favor this month. It is that all who have had their pictures reproduced during the past year personally tell Messenger advertisers DURING AUGUST just what they think of the Messenger. Do you read it? Do you like it? Do you buy from Messenger advertisers? Do you appreciate the Messenger enough to buy from our stores in preference to others? Can you suggest ways to improve the Messenger?

Remember, dear readers, this is a special appeal. Please tell the advertisers—personally—during the month of August, just what you think of the Messenger.

Following we give a description of this-month's pictures:

Upper Left—Grader monument located on hill overlooking Grimm's Bridge over Beaver Creek. Erected to the memory of a veteran of Napoleon's War, who is buried there. We have been unable to obtain details and hope some Messenger reader can give us further facts. Picture contributed by Lawrence E. Brokaw.

Upper Center—This looks like a good sized family. Sixteen in sight but there are eighteen in this lusty brood. Pictures contributed by S. A. Custer on the Fannie Gaston farm near Calcutta.

Right Center—Four generations: Mrs. Susan S. M. Lewis, Mrs. M. F. Bourgeois, Mrs. Della E. Hatcher and Master Oliver K. Hatcher, all of Route 2, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Two Lower Pictures—The lower left picture shows the old Gaston Mill on the Levi Hickman place, known as the "Beaver Valley Farm," one mile from Clarkson on the Bell School House road. It was built by James Gaston in 1837 and later became the property in turn of Thomas Gaston and Philander Gaston. The latter skill owned and operated it in the grinding of corn and oats in 1905, only twenty-seven years ago.

We wish that every Messenger reader could visit and spend an hour in this old mill which is in such a wonderful state of preservation that with power supplied and a few repairs made it could still be operated. All machinery including the shafts, pulleys, chutes, stone burrs, fans, etc., are still in position, all showing the hands of the master craftsman. Wood clear of knots predominates in all construction, though some of the largest cogs are cast iron. Shafts are of wood, eight cornered. Pulleys are likewise of wood.

Some of the ingenious wooden cog gears are shown in the lower right picture. At this particular point, which is on the fourth floor, large levers were used to transfer power to five different machines on lower floors.

The old mill race is seen at the end of the building in the lower left picture. The water no longer passes through it and the wheel is gone—but the immense wood shaft still remains. On the second floor the stone burrs for grinding and the cranes for changing same are ready for instant work.

As a matter of education in the methods employed in intricate construction one hundred years ago we recommend a visit to this old mill. Startling revelation awaits the visitor. One stands in awe at the evident perseverance needed with the tools of the day in producing the cunning contrivances on all sides. The men who built this—and perhaps other mills—were master craftsmen. What might they have accomplished with the modern tools of today?

Some men never hit the mark because they never pull the trigger.
